HURRICANE HUTCH
Episode 7
"On a Dangerous Coast" /

NOV 2 21

By Charles Hutchison.

This chapter opens showing Marlow's yacht arriving at the small island where John Brinkley, possessor of the secret of the silver scarf, lives in self-imposed exile. It is Marlow's idea to force the fugitive to decode the secret of the scarf. On board the vessel, Larry Hutchdale determines to thwart Marlow's plans and recover the scarf for Nancy, the rightful owner. Brinkley's daughter, Bella, is also aboard, and with Hutch and Nancy she hopes to reach her father and warn him of the treachery of Marlow and his henchman, Tigerly.

Marlow and Tigerly leave the vessel in a small boat, intent on reaching Brinkley and carrying him back to captivity. The natives, however, have become attached to their "White Doctor" and it is with difficulty that Marlow accomplishes the deed. While on board, Hutch and Nancy brave the shark-infested waters and swim to the island, hoping to reach Brinkley before Marlow and learn the secret woven in the scarf. They reach the native village safely, but are suddenly seized by the natives, who seem gleeful over their capture, planning vengeance on the white newcomers. But Hutch learns that a dire fate awaits Nancy and himself, as Brinkley has been carried off and the natives intend to take their revenge out on Hutch and Nancy. That night, with the girl he attempts to escape, but is re-captured by the angry savages.
